Clan London Limited presents a Film Investment Offer for

'CLAN LONDON'

The movie will take an exciting and never seen before look at the World of a London-Irish organised crime family who successfully rise in London's equivalent to the infamous New York neighbourhood of 'HELLS KITCHEN' in the 1980's. Who against all odds take control of the London criminal underworld.

We are delighted to introduce CLAN LONDON the feature film project from the new film production arm of the well-known music group The BibleCodeSundays. As well as being the screenwriter/producer, band member Andrew Nolan is also a musician and songwriter who has performed with Elvis Costello, Shane MacGowan (The Pogues/The Popes) and currently Ronan MacManus – brother of Elvis Costello – in The BibleCodeSundays.

We are now looking to offer the opportunity of investing in the movie. Filming will commence in late 2012 with an international release for 2013.

The producers can offer investors the opportunity of using the UK Enterprise Investment Scheme (EIS). This scheme allows investors to mitigate their risk by way of a generous tax incentive program set up and greatly enhanced recently by H.M Treasury to encourage investment in small and medium size FILM and TV enterprises.

Key Reasons and benefits to invest in the movie 'CLAN LONDON'

- An immediate 30% relief on income tax on subscription.
- Any future gains are free of capital gains tax.
